

2. Now fill out this chart to organize the content of your description. Include the information you brainstormed about your likes and dislikes.

Je m'appelle...	(name).
Je suis...	(where you are from).
J'étudie...	(names of classes) à/au/à la (name of school) à (city).
Je ne travaille pas./ Je travaille à/au/ à la/chez...	(place where you work).
J'aime...	(activities you like).
Je n'aime pas...	(activities you dislike).

Écriture

Use the information from the second chart to write a paragraph describing yourself. Make sure you include all the information from the chart in your paragraph. Use the structures provided for each topic.

Bonjour!

Je m'appelle Stacy Adams. Je suis de Rochester. J'étudie le français, les maths, l'anglais, la géographie et la biologie au lycée à New York. Je travaille à la bibliothèque le samedi. J'aime parler avec des amis, écouter de la musique et voyager. Je n'aime pas le sport...

Après l'écriture

1. Exchange a rough draft of your description with a partner. Comment on his or her work by answering these questions:

- Did your partner include all the necessary information (at least five facts)?
- Did your partner use the structures provided in the chart?
- Did your partner use the vocabulary of the unit?
- Did your partner use the grammar of the unit?

2. Revise your description according to your partner's comments. After writing the final version, read it one more time to eliminate these kinds of problems:

- spelling errors
- punctuation errors
- capitalization errors
- use of incorrect verb forms
- use of incorrect adjective agreement
- use of incorrect definite and indefinite articles